

WKPW serves a four-county listening area and provides hourly and daily news, sports and weather. Weekend programs consist of a nondenomination religious nature mixed with music and information. Also a weekly job review of numerous industry careers are broadcast from Indiana University. We have had nothing but good comments on the station and it's programming from listeners. As we all know, you will never please everyone-all the time.